Report of School Board

To the Parents and Citizens of Hebron :—

In each of the two schools in the town, there have been three terms, amounting to twenty-nine weeks for the year at the village school and thirty weeks in East Hebron.

We believe the schools have been profitable and feel justified in saying that the teachers have proved themselves capable and worthy of much praise, and that the scholars have made good advancement in their studies, and in perfect attendance a marked improvement has been made over last year in the village school.

When the parents and scholars work together with the teacher, good results are sure to follow. To do this we must visit the schoolroom and become acquainted with the teacher, and encourage our children to be prompt in attendance and to do their best. We can see the importance of this when we consider that it is in our common schools that the most of our children get their education.

The village school library has been increased by the addition of thirty or more volumes presented by Mrs. J. O. Heald of New Jersey. They are a good selection of books suitable for all ages and are much used and appreciated.

Through the kindness of Mrs. E. F. Holt and the efforts of the "Jungle Club" of East Hebron, the school at that place has been presented with a clock for their schoolroom which is much appreciated by pupils and teacher.

At the close of the spring term of the village school taught by Miss Eva A. Hammond of Hebron there were appropriate exercises in review, also speaking and singing, much credit is due to teacher and pupils. Whole number of visitors were thirty. The fall and winter terms of the village school were under the management of Miss Rosie B. King of Lyme, a teacher of some experience and well adapted to school work. The fall term closed an old-fashioned examination—a review of the studies gone over and worthy of imitation, showing good drill in all branches, the spelling classes were of especial interest. It is to be regretted that so few visitors were present. An interesting literary program was presented at the close of the winter term, duly appreciated by parents and friends. Number of visitors for both terms, fifty.

The spring term at East Hebron was taught by Miss Lura G. Clement of Bridgewater, a teacher well known in this school, it being her fourth term with it. The closing exercises showed hard work done by pupils and teacher; after a review of studies a program consisting of declamations, exercises, etc., was presented. At the close a medal offered by Mr. E. S. Wilson for the best declamation was awarded to Stella M. Adams. Number of visitors, 37.

The fall and winter terms at East Hebron were under the direction of Miss Mary Clement of Bridgewater, a teacher of experience and interested in her work. At the close of the fall term after the usual review a literary program was given for the pleasure of the assembled parents and friends to the number of thirty-six. The winter term was closed by a thorough review of work done and was a credit to teacher and pupils. Number of visitors, 8.

The whole number of children reported by the Truant Officer between the ages of five and sixteen are thirty-two.

ROLL OF PERFECT ATTENDANCE

Spring term.—Claude Jesseman, John T. Perry, Willie Smith, Alta Braley, Ethel Braley, Ada Braley, Marion Chase, Nina Jesseman, Lizzie Perry, Nellie Perry, Eva Smith, Fred Morse, Oscar Morse, Alberta Sanborn, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Irene Hartford and Ona Morse.

Fall term.—Delia Morgan, Nellie Perry, Alta Braley, Nina Jesseman, James Merry, Eva Smith, Lizzie Perry, John Perry, Marion Chase, Ona Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell.

Winter term.—Delia Morgan, Nellie Perry, Alta Braley, Nina Jesseman, Ethel Braley, Eva Smith, Katherine Moore, John Perry, Marion Chase, Stella Adams, Ona Morse, Aquilla Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Oscar Morse, Fred Morse.

For the whole year.—Nina Jesseman, John Perry, Alta Braley, Marion Chase, Nellie Perry, Eva Smith, Ona Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell.

Library Trustees' Report

The Hebron town library has had a prosperous year.
A number of new books have been given by friends.

In 1904 Mrs. Ellen George gave by will $200 to the Hebron town library the interest to be used for the purchase of new books, with this and the money we have from the town, we are able to add a number of new books to our library each year.

The trustees have endeavored to be conservative in all their expenditures.

The librarian's report shows the library has been open every Saturday in the year.
